

EMERGENCY PERMITS

Reissuance of Education Specialist Instruction Permit and Resource Specialist Permit

---

Emergency Permits are available only at the request of an employer. Individuals may not apply directly to the Commission for the reissuance of these documents. Effective January 1, 1998, emergency permits described in this leaflet may be reissued to an individual a maximum of four times, authorizing a maximum of five years of service.

Effective January 1, 1998, emergency permits described in this leaflet may be reissued a maximum of four times, authorizing a maximum of five years of service. At its December 2003 meeting, the Commission voted to discontinue the issuance of all Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Education Specialist Emergency Permits effective June 30, 2006. Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Education Specialist Emergency Permits issued after July 1, 2005 will expire on June 30, 2006 notwithstanding the fact that previous emergency permits stated the document may be reissued for additional years.

The employer and the individual must meet both the general and specific requirements for issuance of Emergency Permits.

General Information

- The employing agency must provide orientation, guidance, and assistance when an individual obtains, for the first time, any of the emergency teaching permits described (The employing agency may vary the nature, content, and duration of the orientation to match the amount of training and experience previously completed by the emergency permit teacher.) It shall include, but not be limited to, an overview of all of the following topics:
  - a. the curriculum that emergency permit teacher is expected to teach
  - b. effective techniques of classroom instruction at the emergency permit teacher's assigned level—preschool, elementary, middle, secondary, or adult education
  - c. effective techniques of classroom management at the emergency permit teacher's assigned level—elementary or secondary

To the extent reasonably feasible, the orientation to teaching shall occur before the emergency permit teacher begins his or her teaching assignment.

- The employing agency will assign an experienced educator to guide and assist each holder of an emergency teaching permit described in this leaflet (the experienced educator shall be a certificated employee of the employing agency, or a certificated retiree of a California school district or county office of education, and have completed at least three years of full-time classroom teaching experience.)
- Emergency permits are valid for one year
- Teaching or service authorized by an emergency permit (except the 30-Day Substitute Permit) is restricted to schools operated by the employing agency that requested the permit

Requirements for Reissuance of Emergency Education Specialist Instruction Permits

Individuals must satisfy all of the following requirements:

1. Submit a complete application packet, including payment of the fee(s) and other documents required verifying completion of all requirements for the specific emergency permit
2. For the first reissuance only, all of the following requirements must be satisfied:
  - a. your employer must verify that orientation, guidance, and assistance have been provided, verified on form CL-469
  - b. obtain an evaluation by a Commission-approved professional preparation institution identifying requirements the emergency permit holder must complete to be eligible for the related credential, verified on form CL-469

(continued)

- c. verify that the holder of the Emergency Education Specialist Instruction Permit has completed one of the following requirements:
  - taken the appropriate subject-matter examination(s) if the holder has not completed the subject-matter knowledge requirement prior to applying for the permit
  - completed at least six semester units or nine quarter units of approved course work (with a grade of “C” or better) in a Commission-approved professional preparation program or subject-matter program required for issuance of the related credential, verified on form CL-469. (The course work must be completed after the issuance date of the current permit and prior to the requested reissue date. The appropriate college or university must verify the course work.)
3. For all subsequent reissuances, both of the following requirements must be satisfied:
  - a. complete at least six semester units or nine quarter units of approved course work (with a grade of “C” or better) in a Commission-approved professional preparation program or subject-matter program required for issuance of the related credential, verified on form CL-469
  - b. your employer must verify that guidance and assistance have been provided on form CL-469
4. The employing agency must have an annual Declaration of Need for Fully Qualified Educators on file with the Commission

Requirements for the Reissuance of Emergency Resource Specialist Permit

Applicants must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Submit a complete application packet, including payment of the fee(s) and other documents required verifying completion of all requirements for the permit
2. For all reissuances, all of the following requirements must be satisfied:
  - a. your employer must verify that orientation, guidance, and assistance have been provided on form CL-469
  - b. complete at least six semester units or nine quarter units of approved course work (with a grade of “C” or better) in a Commission-approved professional preparation program or subject-matter program required for issuance of the related credential verified on form CL-469
  - c. in lieu of the six semester units of course work applicants may complete the assessment for the Resource Specialist Certificate of Competence

Reference: California Education Code, Sections 44251(c) and 44300, and Title 5, California Code of Regulations, Sections 80023.1, 80024.3.1, 80024.3.2, and 80026 through 80026.6